BLUFF WON'T WORK.

Two Kentuckians Who Thought They Wouldn't Move When Ordered.

Last evening's Times-Star contained the following in regard to a couple of Kentuckians:

"We are from Kentucky and you know what that means," said Bert Hollister, "Those are the words that were intended to strike terror to the hearts of Olivera, Stark, Ray, and Miller, who were arrested in Cincinnati streets Tuesday night. The Kentuckians were John Hancock and Joe Coughlin, both of whom claim to live at Mayville."

They were not satisfied with something that had happened in a "rumpus" house on Walnut street and had struck terror to the minds of the officers. When they arrived the two wild and woolly Kentuckians tried to run away, but were captured by the police, but there was nothing about them that would scare. They ordered them to get into a police car, but when they didn't know whether they would move or not, especially for two policemen, they got into the car. This was enough, and in a few minutes from the time of the first arrest the two Kentuckians were behind the bars of a Police Station charged with disorderly conduct.

Zack Smith, Lewis Williams and Kirk Shepherd, who burgled the Fuel Plant of a valuable pump and sold it for junk and 55 cents, were arraigned before Judge Wadsworth yesterday afternoon. They waived examination and were held to the Grand Jury to answer a charge of grand larceny.

Mr. and Mrs. Trapp and son with Mr. Junkerman of Maysville, and a wife, the remains of Mr. George O. Ammon, Pittsburgh, whose funeral occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Bremer, with rites according to the Episcopalian church, were laid to rest in the cemetery affiliated with residents of our city. The Masons had charge of the burial, which was in the Mayville Cemetery. The relatives returned home immediately after the burial.

On motion of the Committee, adjourned to meet at Ashland May 20, 1890, at 2 p.m. J. S. HICKS, Chairman State Union District.

C. G. McALISTER, Secretary.

The rejection by the United States Senate of CLARENCE of Montana and QUAT of Pennsylvania is of especial interest to one JOSEPHUS CLAY STOVER BLACKBURNHURST of the once proud Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Those good ladies who are so zealous in raising funds to build a monument to GOEBEL, the partisan, should pause long enough to bestow just one ray of sympathy upon their grandmother, heart-broken sister, the widow of poor JOHN SANFORD, whose life was snuffed out by GOEBEL, the murderer.

The Court of Appeals has decreed that this is the law in Kentucky—

"Concealing that there had been fraud after fraud; that there had been bribery and conspiracy; that unfairness had characterized the selection of constituted committees to the Legislature, there is no power given to the Governor to call a special session. It is power given to the Legislature, and there is no authority to question the manner in which the power has been exercised."

It is to be hoped that the people of Kentucky, in their efforts to raise funds with which to defend and protect the innocent from imprisonment and persecution in the criminal Courts, will not overlook the services of one of the state's most able, patriotic and brilliant lawyers. Only $6,000 was ever made up by the candidates and their friends to defray the expenses of the present contest. Most of this fund went to the payment of witness fees and costs.

A division of the remainder among the various attorneys afforded each only a nominal fee. In spite of all this, without murmur, without complaint, this valiant and patriotic man has toiled on when others have turned back, and has worked unceasingly when others have despaired and fell by the wayside.

The fee which he has received for fighting for the liberties of Kentuckians through the Franklin and Jefferson Circuit Courts, through the United States District Court, before the Contest Board, before the Legislature, before the Court of Appeals, and in a few days before the United States Supreme Court, would be an insult even to a shyster before a Police Judge.

An effort should be made throughout the state to pay, partly at least, the debt of gratitude which the people owe to this able, brave and brainy man—not in thanks, which is all very nice, but in dollars which are nicer and more substantial. We hope it may not be said of Kentuckians that they have repaid faithfulness with ingratitude, intelligence and attentive labor with neglect, and have let go almost wholly unrewarded the invaluable services of "the noble Roman of them all," ex-Governor WILLIAM O.
BRADLEY.

HON. W. A. GAINES of Covington was selected to be one of Kentucky's Delegates-at-large to the Philadelphia Convention.

A DISPATCH FROM Washington says this day—

It is stated that Governor TAYLOR's friends here that in his interview with ex-Secretary CARLISLE, the latter was evasive in expressing his desire and belief that the Supreme Court will decide in the Governor's favor.

"Mr. Governor, bright and early, was upon Kentucky. It would have been a blessing to the state had he died a natural death years ago."

Now, THE LEDGER doesn't believe half the statements that are attributed by sensational newsmongers to prominent persons; hence it does not print for truth the declamation in regard to GORMAN credited to Mr. CARLISLE;— but if he did say it, he never in all his life uttered a more solemn truth.

I will pay you your own price for a match to my horse, George," said GORMAN.

Mr. David Tate Fury of Shawan and Miss Minnie Kate Fulton of Georgetown were married Tuesday last at Lexington.
Mr. Fury is a nephew of Mrs. Fred Schenck of this city.

Call at THE LEDGER office and examine the magnificently edition, 30 volumes, of the Encyclopedia Britannica that you can get for only $1 cash and small monthly payments. Don't delay; you may wait too long.

Corn :: Eagle.
Planter. Buckeye.
Victor.

This is the season of the year that every farmer should have a Corn Planter that is some account, and as that is the only kind we handle it will pay those who contemplate raising a crop of corn to start right. Corn will not grow until it is planted, and in order to yield a big crop it must be planted right. These are the kind of Corn Planters we sell, the one's that plant right.

We also handle

TREE CLIPS,

HYPNOTIZED MAN DEP.

Found on the Railroad Track Near Lexington, Bodily Mangled.
His Identity Unknown.

Lexington, Ky., April 26.—Shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday morning a badly mangled body was found by farmers on the Cincinnati Southern tracks in the rear of the Catholic cemetery. When taken to the hospital he proved to be the "hypnotized man," whose queer actions had been the talk of the city for two or three days. He was a native of St. Louis, Mo., and was known to us as Frank Shiner, his age 28, and the place of his birth San Antonio, Tex. He refused to answer any questions concerning these, and would not say why he had been suddenly struck by a train or whether he had thrown himself on the tracks.
He died at 8 o'clock.

The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of J. H. Wehl for examination. After the police had secured the body, the detective head went to Frankfort and presented the baggage check found in the dead man's clothing. He was given a grip which had come through from Mt. Clemens, Mich. The valise contained a pair of trousers, a number of shirts, undershirts, a number of soft hats, two bottles of perfume, two boxes of capsules and an unaddressed letter to his mother. The clothing was marked "H. Taylor," and the medicine bottles and boxes bore the labels of Druggists J. H. Westendorf and J. H. Wehl, both of Frankfort. On the capsule boxes the name of "Dr.
Berry" was written as the prescribing physician. The body will be held here until some information can be obtained from Mt. Clemens.

BORDING HOME DISMANTLED.

Mr. Sterling, Ky., April 26.—An attempt was made at an early hour in yesterday morning to blow up the baking house home of Mrs. Alice Stephens, on Locust street. Some one threw a stick of dynamite into the rear of the building, and every window down in the house and an adjoining building was blown out. The shock was so terrific that buildings for miles around were shaken, and intense alarm was created. The circuit court immediately convened and Justice Johnson and Judge Cooper impaneled a special grand jury to investigate the outrage.

POPULISTS FAVOR UNION.

Louisville, Ky., April 26.—A meeting of populist leaders of this state who favor fusion with the democrats was held here. Fourteen delegations to the national convention at St. Louis in 1896; denouncing trusts, favoring an income tax and the election of United States senators by popular vote, and endorsing William J. Bryan for the presidential nomination.

A CARELESS YOUTH KILLED.

Morgantown, Ky., April 26.—Little Norm Steine, a twelve-year-old girl, was

MASON COUNTY M. D'S.

Their Monthly Meeting Yesterday a Very Inviting One.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Mason County Medical Society yesterday, with several honorary members and practical physicians.

D. A. C. Buntington read an essay on "Thermometry" in its practical applications which ought to have been heard by every physician in the county. It pointed out important sources of error and prescribed the manner in which these errors may be avoided.

The same arrangement has a series of admirable papers which have already given a reputation to a Society which is now but a year old.

While not resolved, it was generally expressed that an application for a seat was carried with it a measure of obligation to the Society, and a man's honest desire to command and utilize the individual experience and learning of every member of the Society. The hope was indulged that in future the designated speaker would receive the compensation he deserved, after his own style and manner upon his own chosen subject, but at the Society's appointed time.

Dr. H. K. Adamson was appointed essayist for the meeting.

In gratifying a desire, in evidence of the Society's standing and progress, that it is now entitled to representation in the American Medical Association, whose next annual meeting occurs June 6th at Atlantic City in a session of four days. Drs. A. N. Ellis and A. G. Browning were appointed delegates.

Drs. J. A. Reed and M. H. Davis were appointed delegates to the State Medical Association, whose next meeting will be in Georgetown May 6th.

The next meeting of the Society, May 20th, will mark its first anniversary, and it is proposed to make the occasion especially interesting.

Yes, Angus Flower is still the largest scale of any in the civilized world.
